Article 12

~~"Section 8. Parking. Any vehicle parked on any unit closer than five (5') feet from any paved roadway surface will be deemed to be encroaching on such paved roadway surface. In addition, the parking of a vehicle on any roadway so as to interfere with, block, or restrict other vehicles is expressly prohibited."~~

Section 8. Parking. Parking on CSA roadways is restricted or prohibited. Short-term daytime (dawn to dusk) parking on CSA roadways is permitted for contractor, service, delivery vehicles, and Owner's vehicles when work is being performed at a parcel or on CSA common properties, or for social gatherings. Short-term nighttime parking is permitted for social gatherings; all nighttime parking is prohibited between 11:00 pm to dawn. Recreational vehicles parked on parcel driveway must be at least five feet (5') from a roadway to conform to Brevard County Code Section 62-2117(b)(2)b.1.

In addition to the restriction on recreational vehicles, any vehicle (including golf carts or low speed vehicles) may not be parked on any unit closer than two (2) feet from any paved roadway surface.
